Incident Summary: On 2/7/22, CPD units were dispatched to the 1300 Block of Briarwood Avenue after a window pane was discovered to have a bullet hole just above an exit door and glass shattered on the floor. Officers recalled a shotspotter had been received in the area at 7:28pm. After reviewing the camera footage, it was determined that the gunshot struck the building at 7:24pm. The shotspotter indicated the gunshots were fired in the area of the 1400 Block of Myrtle Avenue, where three spent shell casings were recovered, as well as 1 live round. The evidence was submitted to CPD Crime Lab for testing. This incident is still under investigation and anyone with information is asked to contact Burglary Unit Detective James Dembinski #1989 at (614) 645-6267, or Central Ohio Crime Stoppers at (614) 461-TIPS (8477).
